

Human Samples Confidentiality Agreement

I, the undersigned, agree to the following:

All human samples and/or data at the individual record level provided by me or my designate to the RNA Sequencing Core of the Department of Biomedical Sciences at Cornell University will be coded or de-identified. Under no circumstances will the identifiers be made available to individuals in the RNA Sequencing Core at Cornell University. Any breach or suspected breach of data confidentiality shall be reported immediately to the current department chair.

Any intentional violation of this agreement shall be the basis for dismissal for cause.
